James Webber Recruitment

Increasing value through people

About Us

From its inception in 1999 by MD James Webber, JWR has through consistent delivery of service excellence, grown to cover the whole of the UK and international recruitment markets. With 4 strategically located offices in Salisbury, Birmingham, London and Exeter, we are able to provide our large variety of clients with both regional specific knowledge and industry expertise from our dedicated team of consultants.

JWR is built on our combined commitment to provide our clients with effective recruitment solutions and an open and productive consultation that addresses their needs. We ensure our selection of candidates is based on individual client requirements and that they make a true difference by adding value to their business.

Our consultants come with extensive hospitality and recruitment experience which gives us an enviable, top quality network at our fingertips. Along with a number of social platforms to excite and engage our candidates, we are able to source an excellent pool of talent for our clients.

Our specialist areas include management within F&B Operations, Executive Chefs and brigade, Sales & Marketing, Finance & Revenue Management, General Managers, HR and other senior management positions.

Why Choose Us

Spread across 4 offices, we have dedicated consultants with experience in different disciplines of hotel recruitment. This allows us to be able to provide our clients with a network of candidates that has been developed over several years of experience.

Our consultants all have hospitality experience and are able to truly understand the people requirements for your business.

What We Do

At JWR we offer our clients a number of recruitment options from which to choose.

Executive Search - Headed up by our Senior Directors, with over 60 years of combined recruitment expertise behind them, they have amassed a truly enviable network of contacts built through excellence in their field.

This dedicated group undertakes assignments for some of the best businesses in the country - from interim GMs to Board Director appointments for brands that we all know and love.

Through an effective process of mapping the business needs through to the selection and appointment, the JWR Executive Search team is the best in the business.

Contingency – Our day-to-day recruitment carried out by all of our consultants. Through effective and open communication, we are able to deliver the right candidates for your business to grow. We have a proven track record of delivering excellent candidates that truly embody what your business truly believes in and needs.

Fixed Term Appointments – Through our extensive network of candidates, we are able to support businesses with fixed term recruitment solutions, should you require to bolster up your team or add support through extremely busy periods of business. This allows our clients to rest easy because our outstanding quality of candidates can support them throughout the year.

“ JWR have provided an invaluable service to us over the past few years, helping us to fill a variety of key positions and management posts, in all areas of the business. The team at JWR have a strong relationship with our senior managers and always work with us to meet briefs and timelines, continuously providing quality and demonstrating a good understanding of our needs. ”

“JWR are a preferred supplier for our hotel group – they were chosen to be a preferred supplier by our HR team throughout the UK as we have always received excellent service from them. Candidates are always a good fit to the role and our organisation. The team pay particular attention to making sure that they understand what we want and the background of the hotel.

They understand our culture and who fits and who doesn't, which makes our lives so much easier.

We have recruited some excellent employees at all levels from JWR and I would have no hesitation in recommending them as one of the best recruitment agents that we use. ”
