Top 5 Restaurant-Related Films (According to JWR...)

We all love a good restaurant film. Whether it's a Pixar or a drama we enjoy them and sometimes can relate to some of the experiences that these characters go through. Especially if you work in the food industry. Here are JWR's top 5 favourite restaurant-related films and if you haven't seen these, we suggest you fit them into your plans for tonight.

1. Burnt (2015)

This comedy/drama stars Bradley Cooper as a chef who has a bad reputation and is ready to clean up his act. He moves to London and begins working at a top restaurant that can gain three Michelin stars. This film is definitely a favourite with our chef consultants.

2. Ratatouille (2007)

This feel good Pixar film takes place in Paris and follows a rat named Remy who dreams of being a chef despite his family's wishes. Remy befriends a garbage boy at a high class restaurant and the two strike a deal, start a partnership and set into motion a hilarious and exciting chain of events.

3. Waiting (2005)

Have you ever worked in a chain restaurant and hated every minute or worked as a waiter in your youth whilst attending uni? Well, this hilarious film starring Ryan Reynolds is worth watching. This cult classic is about a student who works at Shenanigans and has very crazy work colleagues...

4. Chef (2014)

This full star cast is about a head chef who quits his job and goes back to public cooking after having a public meltdown. It is a funny and charming film starring Jon Favreau, Scarlett Johansson, Dustin Hoffman, Robert Downey Jr., and many more familiar faces. It will leave you hungry for a Cuban sandwich.

5. The Cook, the Thief, His Wife & His Lover (1989)

Michael Gambon and Helen Mirren star in this intense, crime drama about a marriage between a crime boss and his unfaithful wife. It all takes place in a restaurant where food, murder and other things (not suitable for children) are the exotic fare in this film.
